ACS Benefit Services Announces Partnership with Delta Dental of NC

Winston-Salem, NC – ACS Benefit Services, a leading third-party administrator, has announced a new partnership with Delta Dental of North Carolina (Delta Dental), giving ACS members in North Carolina access to the largest network of dentists statewide and across the country.

For ACS clients, Delta Dental brings a new opportunity for lowering overall healthcare costs, while providing employees with high-quality, affordable dental benefits.

“Delta Dental’s proven track record of excellence and industry expertise speaks for itself,” said Kari L. Niblack, Esq., CEO of ACS Benefit Services. “Their commitment to providing easy access to more affordable dental care, while also giving back to the local communities they serve, aligns seamlessly with our mission at ACS. We’re excited to offer Delta Dental plans as another tool in our growing arsenal of innovative, cost-saving benefit solutions.”

“Delta Dental is pleased to work with ACS to offer the broadest access to more affordable dental care for its members. Better access and affordability foster better health. That is what makes this partnership so impactful as we work together to improve the overall health of our communities,” said Curt Ladig, President and CEO of Delta Dental of North Carolina.

This innovative solution is available to all ACS clients effective February 1, 2022.
